Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The use of the term “and/or” is deemed to be indefinite as the scope of the claim is not clear per the statute. Is one side, below or both claimed?

Claim 5 is incorrect as the slots are on the second unit, not the first unit. Also there is no antecedent for “first unit” in claim 1.

Claim 5 is further indefinite in the double use of “or”. Is a slidable screen that moves downwardly or to the side or a hinged screen that moves downwardly or to the side being claimed?

Claim 8 lacks antecedent for “unit” on line 4, as two are claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-4, 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Karford.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 5-7, 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Karford in view of Francis et al., optionally Westerman.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in Karford slotted and hooked engagement to the first unit as taught by Francis et al. Optionally, It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in these references a hinged second unit 38 as taught by Westerman in order to further shield solar radiation.

As to claim 6, see channels at 61, 62 of Karford.

As to claim 7, Karford teaches tinted transparent material 38 and Francis teaches same at 110.

Information Disclosure Statement

7. The information disclosure statement filed June 1, 2005 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered as to the missing foreign patent documents.

Art Unit: 3612

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Gera et al. and Davalos detail further extendable visor additions.
